Author Matryoshka

These are the rarest and hence more collectable type of Russian Doll. Each Matryoshka Doll is hand-turned and crafted by an expert wood turner from lime or birch wood that has been seasoned for at least three to four years.

The wooden blanks are chosen by professional artists who then paint in their own unique and distinctive styles. Thus, creating some of the most exquisitely painted dolls with themes from Russian folklore & legend, and that which inspires the artists' imagination.

Prices for dolls of this calibre depend purely on quality, detail, and the overall collectability of a particular artists' work.

As each Author Matryoshka is truly one-of-a-kind, you can be assured that these dolls will create inspiration for years to come.
